The city court room where the ses ion was held was well filled with interested spectators, the majority of of curiosity as to the probable appointment of a chief of police. That this was true was demonstrated when Manager Farish announced that George Brishois, the present night captain of police, was his choice for successor to A. J. Moore and was greeted with round after round of applause. Thereafter the crowd began to dwindle evidently having no further interest i the proceedings.

The reading of the m previous meeting was made the first order of business. With the approval of the minutes, the report of Manager

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] DENVER, April 10.—A speedy setlement of the remaining public lands of the western states, with a view of the complete jurisdiction by every state irged upon congress by the Western Governors conference. While the govrnors were preparing to close their onference with the adoption of these esolutions, the irrigation conference iebated ways and means for raising money for irrigation projects,

The governors reaffirmed in full heir platform of last year in which arious subjects held by executives to e vital in uphullding the west. In he platform the governors declared "upon the administration of the aws governing the disposal of the publie lands in very large measure depends the future prosperity of our states. That newer states having been admitted in express terms on an equal footing in all respects with the original states, no realization of that condition can be obtained until the states jurisdiction extends to all her territory, giv ing taxing power to all lands, thereby securing them in their political power and influence. The reclamation committee presented its report, suggesting a general debate of the financial questions confronting the various enterprises. George H.
